I wanted to let you know I used $40 from the Christmas reverse offering to help a local charity called Young Lives in Midland, TX where I live (associated with Young Life). They support local young moms and babies with supplies and mentorship. I have heard from local girls they have helped and it is amazing to see how they have helped these girls from broken homes get on their feet and provide someone to believe and help them.

Thank you!